AT THE AUDITORIUM.

The Night Shadows of New York, the Three Reel Sensation, and Three new

Today is the last chance you will have to see one of the most talked about photoplays of the season, The about photoplays of the season. The Night Shadows of New York. This picture, despite its title, contains nothing that will offend, and everything to commend. The story is one of today, and it shows New York life from the highest class of society down to the lowest depths. It shows the inside workings of the law in its dealings with offenders of all kinds, and the story itself was taken from an actual happening of the past year. Films of this kind are remembered, as they make you think, and the lessons it teaches are not easily forgotten. The peu in one roar of laughter the entire 15 minutes they occupy the stage. Baisden, the cyclist, comes next. If there is anything on wheels that Baisden cannot ride it has not yet been invented. Some of his feats are thrilling in the extreme. To see him ride the monster "Giraffocycle" is a sight that is worth going a long way to see.

The favorites Cleary and Tracey, will close the vaudeville, and these versatile entertainers will present their original specialty, which they call A Liftle of Everything. This is one of the most reliable acts on the circuit today, and one that can always be de-today, and one that can always be depended on to make good. Pearl White, the Crystal Star, will be seen in two rattling good comedies, entitled Dress Reform, and Baldy Belmont Wants a Wife, to finish the bill.

Friday night the first show and Lucia in Cavalleria. Secure your seats now. Prices 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50 and $2.

Dorothy Donnelly, in Maria Rosa, Coming to the Davis.

Friday night, the first show only, will be presented The Country Store, for the first time in Norwich. Valuable presents given away and a barrel of fun on tap.

HAP WARD JUVENILE PLAYERS In Pinafore, at Auditorium, Next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday,

As a refreshing novelty and a most interesting performance generally, the Hap Ward Players, who come to the critics as the strongest and best drama Auditorium next Monday, will without seen on the American stage in many Auditorium next Monday, will without question fill the bill to a nicety. These clever, youthful players produce Gilbert & Sudivan's famous opera, Pinafore, in a most delightful way. The sunging of the well remembered lyrics and tunes is far above the average musically, the many young performers having been selected with great care by Mr. Ward for the different roles, and that he has succeeded in organizing a juvenile opera company that would put many of the traveling organizations to shame has been attested by the crowds at every performance since the New England tour started, several weeks ago. There has been the most careful attention to detail, several weeks ago. There has been the most careful attention to detail, both in the production and dressing, the vocal features will astonish music lovers, the voices of the youthful members lending a peculiar charm to Pinafary only, and by special arrangement a scale of prices will be in vogue that are extremely low. Seats may be secured in advance at the box office or by 'phone 772. Preparations are being Smallsh actor, is Ouirico, and Charles by 'phone 772. Preparations are being Spanish actor, is Quirico, and Charles made for a record breaking crowd, as this is without a doubt the neatest and Seats will be on sale at box office cleanest show that ever came to this today. Prices 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1 city. This is the show New London and $1.50. went wild over.

COLONIAL THEATER.

Race Memories, Two Reel Patheplay of the Prehistoric Age.

Without doubt one of the strongest and most interesting picture stories ever produced is Race Memories, the big two reel sensation at the Colonial Denton, an anthropologist of note, meets an attractive girl whose father insists upon her marriage to a man whom he favors because of his man whom he favors because of his wealth. Denton and the girl are mutually attracted, he believing that they have met before. He becomes worn out by overstudy, brain fever setting in, and the mind pictures he has of the girl fade into a vision of a prehistoric existence, where he wanders as a stone age savage, meets and loves the girl of his heart, who also lives in the strange. his heart, who also lives in the strange world. Again there is the conflict between wealth and poverty and the father's opposition, but Denton wins out after struggling with a savage rival, as well as with wild beasts. This is a superband scientifically accurate Pathers. perb and scientifically accurate Patheplay, and will prove all-absorbing. Other pictures today are Hello Trouble, Essanay; Marvelous Pathe Week-ly, Oh, Sammy, and Riley's Decoy, Bio-graph comedies, and other films.

be seen at this popular theater this afternoon, with the headline attraction the Gasch Sisters, Europe's most mar-borough. the Gasch Sisters, Europe's most marvelous lady acrobats. These clever ladies do a clever acrobatic and tumbling act that is incomparable, for no other team of women has ever attempted, much less accomplished the wonderful feats they perform. The feature photoplay on this bill is a three reel masterpiece. The Missing Woman, a startling story of confused identities, telling how a woman was willing to make many sacrifices for the sake of her sister. Some very thrilling scenes are enacted in this feature, the principal ones being a big factory fire and a terrific lightning storm. The other photoplays are The Harvest of Sin, a thrilling K. B. western drama; Mrs. Brown's Burgiar, a laughable Majestic comedy! His Imaginary Princess, a Acautiful Princess comedy drama, and Some Nerve, a screamingly funny Keystone comedy with Ford Sterling and Mabel Norman, the two biggest favorites on the photoplay screen, Matlinee as usual today, all seats 10 cents. Tonight the Grand Opera Singers from the Boston Opera company.

DAVIS THEATER TONIGHT.

Edgar Littleton, the Basso of the Boston Opera stars.

Few bassos in the world have the brilliancy of tone combined with the deep, rich quality that makes Edgar Littleton stand out as the one great basso of America. In every city where he has appeared in concert on the tour of the company of Grand Opera Singers from the Boston Opera house, his personal triumph has not been exceeded by any of the more famous artists including such well known stars as MMM. Few bassos in the world have the brilliancy of tone combined with the deep, rich quality that makes Edgar Littleton stand out as the one great basso of America. In every city where he has appeared in concert on the tour of the company of Grand Opera Singers, from the Boston Opera house, his personal triumph has not been exceeded by any of the more famous artists including such well known stars as MM. Raoul Romito Giovanni Gatti, Nikola Oulouchanoff, and Romero Malpica. It has been said that there are more great male singers in this agare more great male singers in this ag-gregation than have ever been put into a touring company before, and local music lovers will have a chance of judging the truth of this statement teaches are not easily forgotten. The above picture will be shown before the vaudeville.

The first of today's three acts will be Gilmore and Gistle, comedians, in burnt cork. These clever delineators of Ethiopian eccentricities will keep you in one roar of laughter the entire 15 minutes they occupy the stage. Baisden, the cyclist, comes next. If Baisden, the cyclist, comes next. If a stage of the fruth of this statement tonight, when the company comes to the Davis theater. M. Littleton sings in the opera La Traviata, which is presented in complete form, and in the concert programme he sings arias that thrill and delight, every listener. His Il Lacerato Spirito, from Verdi's Simon Boccanegia, is always a hit, as are his arias from Ernani, Philemon et Baucis, and The Heart Bowed Down, from the and The Heart Bowed Down, from the Bohemian Girl. The aggregation as a whole is larger

The aggregation as a whole is larger and better than the one which toured New England last year, according to newspaper reports from cities already visited. Mmes. Maria DiGabbi and Marguerita Boas are the prima donna sopranos, Mile, Emma Ecker is the prima donna contralto, and Mme. Josefina Rondero is the Spanish mezzosoprano, who sings Mama Lucia in Cavalleria. Secure your seats now.

Lovers of good acting, a strong play and a clean drama with a "punch" will welcome the coming of Dorothy Donnelly to the Davis on next Saturday evening, Jan. 10th, for an engagement of one night. Miss Donnelly is starring this season in Maria Rosa, a three act drama by Angel Guimera which has drama by Angel Guimers, which has taken Europe by storm, to say nothing of all the Americas. When the piece was produced in Boston last February the theater was not large enough to hold the audience who wished to see the play which

In 1806 the corporation of the city of Sheffield took over the street trans-portation of the city as a municipal undertaking and has since demonstrated beyond dispute that street railways in this city, at least, can be operated at a handsome profit, pay good wages and accommodate the traveling public all on a basis of 1 penny (2 cents)

American typewriters are represented in Mannheim by the Remington, Underwood, Smith-Premier and L. C. Smith companies. Notwithstanding severe German competition, these concerns do a good business, largely ascribed to fair and thoroughly business methods. American adding and calculating machines are well represented. Typewriter agencies handle this business as well.

POETRY

Fair Symbol of the Days to Be.

Blithe Usher of the brand-new Year,
With annual fervor I greet thee,
Thou quaint Tradition, ghost and
dear!

With seasonable zest I fold
Thy staple charms unto my heart,
And swear, with passion well controlled,
Of New Year Queens the Gem thou art!

I take thy rival from the tack—
Poor girl, 'twas just a year ago
I hung her up—alas, alack,
That beauty should be humbled so!
I must forget her smile her form,
Her glance and hose transparent,
And think on thee, thou mild Brainstorm.

Thou art so trim and debonair.

Thy tresses so drug-store yellow,
I shame to ask that thou shalt share
The hearth of a plugging fellow.
But thou shalt dwell above the din:
Unstained by toll thy taper hand,
The while I grub to get the "tin,"
And hustle, dear, to beat the bandt

O Perfect One, thy merry eyes

Twill be my pleasure to endure,
Knowing a million other guys
Daily enjoy thy witching lurel
With seasonable warmth I fold
Thy staple charms unto my breast,
And swear, with passion well controlled,
For one whole year to love thee
